25X1 5. [ ] Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, called in behalf of Senator Henry Jackson to say that he would stop in Washington for only a few hours en route from his home on the West Coast to Europe and, therefore, wished Miss Fosdick and Colonel Haaken Lindjord, her associate, to proceed to draft a speech the Senator intends to give in Europe (presumably before the North Atlantic Assembly in Brussels). Miss Fosdick said the Senator would like her and Lindjord to get an updated briefing on the Warsaw Pact military situation and the general conditions in Eastern Europe, Middle East situation, Finland, and conditions on the Sino-Soviet border. Since she had spoken enthusiastically of the earlier briefing on some of these subjects given by [ ] OSR, I said I would call on him for the briefing and we agreed on 11:00 A.M., Friday, 1 November. I notified [ ]

25X1 Later, Miss Fosdick called to say she had just received a call from Senator Jackson who expressed keen interest in "the German spy cases," and despite his tight schedule would like a personal briefing thereon during his brief stopover en route to Europe on Saturday, 9 November. 25X1

25X1 6. [ ] Mr. Orin Briggs, on the staff of Senator Strom Thurmond (R., S. Car.), called concerning [ ] who 25X1 according to Briggs is a qualified pilot, interested in employment possibilities with the Agency. Briggs said he didn't know [ ] 25X1 interests were but wondered who he should contact in the Agency. [ ] 25X1 [ ] I told Briggs I was not at all 25X1 certain that we would have a position [ ] would be interested in but I 25X1 suggested that he write directly to our Director of Personnel indicating Senator Thurmond had suggested he contact us. This seemed quite acceptable to Briggs who merely wanted to have an address [ ] I told 25X1 Briggs I would alert [ ] 25X1
